Lecturer	DiplKfm. Univ; Bac. Oec. Univ. Bernd Einmeier
Module Language	English
Conditions of participation	In terms of form: Fluent English skills, own computer with Internet
	In terms of content: High self-motivation to contribute the workshop content
Examination	Project Work (50%), Seminar paper (50%)
Pre-examination requirements	None
Part of final grade	Yes
Learning outcomes / Competences	After successfully completing the module, the students understand the basic Business Development concepts and have first valuable insights in China business approaches.
	The module will be performed in a "Flipped Classroom" concept, where the knowledge will be prepared by the students at home, the knowledge deepening will happen in the seminar.
Contents	Knowledge/Understanding:• Overview of Business Development activities• Evaluation of Business Development tools• Case studies and successful show cases• Insights for Venture Capital investor requirements• China business culture habits• China market entrance requirementsAbilities/Transfer:• Preparation for Business Development working experience• Ability to compile a technology driven business plan• Learning from best practice entrepreneurs• First contacts to Chinese business partners• Individual coaching of business soft skills• Business Plan Development• China Cultural Training for China Managers
Media	Circle-time, projector and PC, white board, flipchart
Literature	 Scott Pollack: What, Exactly, Is Business Development?: A Primer on Getting Deals Done, 2018 Alexander Osterwalder und Yves Pigneur: Business Model Generation: A Handbook for Visionaries, Game Changers, and Challengers, 2010 Mark J. Greeven und Wei Wie: Business Ecosystems in China: Alibaba and Competing Baidu, Tencent, Xiaomi and LeEco, 2017 Yu Cheng, Lilei Song, et al.: The Belt & Road Initiative in the Global Arena: Chinese and European Perspectives, 2018

Course: China Business Development